SINT MAARTEN POLICE FORCE (KPSM) · CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DEPARTMENT

Team Leader Specialist Investigations

Salary scale 10 · Ministry of Justice / KPSM

Reading the clues is one thing. Leading a team to deliver is another.

A report comes in. The information is patchy, the pressure is on, and your team looks to you. As Team Leader Specialist Investigations, you lead detectives on the most complex cases: youth, sexual offences and serious crime (JZZ) and/or forensic investigation. You set the course, choose the investigative approach and make sure the case file stands up for the Public Prosecution Service.

Organization:	Ministry of Justice / KPSM
Department:	Criminal Investigation Department
Salary scale:	10
Reports to:	Head of the Criminal Investigation Section

What you'll do

- You lead. Allocate cases, set priorities, plan deployment and rosters, hold staff conversations and coach your people. You keep quality high and make sure protocols are followed.
- You decide. Advise on the right investigative approach in a complex specialist field, and direct the police response on scene during incidents and emergencies.
- You build. Help develop new methods and ways of working, draw up plans of approach, and map patterns and connections.
- You connect. Work hand in hand with the Public Prosecution Service and colleagues across the force, and build networks with citizens, businesses and institutions.
- You serve as Assistant Officer of Justice (hulpofficier van Justitie) and as the senior point of contact within the Section.

What you'll bring

- You are an experienced investigator with a cool head
- Education at MBO level (secondary vocational), or VMBO/HAVO plus relevant vocational and/or management training, or substantial relevant experience instead
- Specialist knowledge and experience in criminal investigation, focused on youth, sexual offences and serious crime (JZZ) and/or forensic investigation, and a vision for special investigative techniques
- Knowledge of criminal law, criminal procedure and administrative law, plus courtroom training
- Experience leading a team
- Experience with documentation and registration systems, and knowledge of personnel policy
- Certification as Assistant Officer of Justice (hulpofficier van Justitie)
- Strong command of Dutch and English; French, Spanish or Papiamento is a plus
- Resilient under pressure

What we offer
