Due to the delay in manufacturing and delivery of the 2020 plates along with the state of emergency caused by COVID-19, it was decided to issue stickers instead of number plates for the remainder of 2020.

The Receivers Office hereby announces the arrival and distribution of the stickers for vehicle tax 2020.

In an effort to keep taxpayers and our employees safe from COVID-19 during distribution we advise the following:

Procedure for those taxpayers who have already paid the Motor vehicle tax:
The business community and other organizations are requested to submit a copy of the insurance and inspection cards along with the receipt of payment for your vehicle fleet and those of your employees (preferably) in an envelope at the Receivers Office building (next to the festival village). This possibility also exist for independent groups such as family members etc.

Be sure to put your contact information on the envelope.

All other taxpayers are requested to collect their stickers based on the schedule below:
