PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS

Democracy remains the only system of governance in which people can fully express their right to vote and is a major determining factor for a nation’s development and long-term stability. The Parliament plays an important role in democracies. The Members of Parliament are elected to represent the people of the country; they act as the voice of the people, co-legislators, exercise control over/ supervise the Government’s policies, and are, therefore, accountable to the people of the Country.

Members of Parliament on Sint Maarten are elected to Parliament based on a proportional representation system. Based on the ordinances of Sint Maarten, the next Parliamentary election is scheduled for Thursday, January 11, 2024. All eligible voters of Sint Maarten are encouraged to go out and exercise their right to vote.
