CENTRAAL STEMBUREAU
CENTRAL VOTING BUREAU
SINT MAARTEN

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Central Voting Bureau is pleased to announce a public hearing scheduled for Tuesday, January 16th at 10:00 AM at the Legislative Hall of the House of Parliament, in accordance with article 87, paragraph 1, of the Electoral Ordinance. This hearing is a crucial step in ensuring the integrity and transparency of the electoral process.

During this session, the Central Voting Bureau may, either on its own initiative or following a substantiated request from one or more voters, order a new counting of ballots from all or some of the polling stations. This is a vital part of safeguarding the accuracy of the election results.

Process and Authority:

1. The Central Voting Bureau has the authority to initiate a recount of ballots, either from all polling stations or from select ones, based on its decision or in response to a motivated request from voters.
2. The Central Voting Bureau is authorized to open sealed packages and compare the contents with the minutes of the polling stations, ensuring the process's fairness and precision.

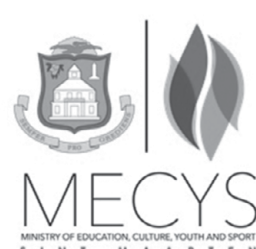

The public hearing is open to all, and your attendance and engagement are highly encouraged. This event underscores our commitment to a transparent and fair electoral process.
