Ministry of Public Health, Social Development and Labor

The Staff Bureau of the Ministry of Public Health, Social Development and Labor is looking for a Project Leader with a strong focus on communication to drive complex projects, strengthen collaboration, and ensure effective policy implementation. This role combines project management with communication expertise to deliver results that matter.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assess the social impact of projects, identify bottlenecks, and propose policy improvements.
- Draft communication plans.
- Develop and manage policy projects with complex implementation challenges.
- Lead communication efforts, including drafting and presenting project plans and outcomes.
- Support management with related activities as needed.

Your Profile:

- Bachelor’s degree in Communications, Public Relations or similar fields.
- Degree/certification in Project Management.
- Proven experience in a similar role.
- Strong project management and organizational skills.
- Excellent communication skills (written & spoken) in English and Dutch.
- Ability to build strong working relationships with colleagues, policymakers, and stakeholders.
- Knowledge of public administration, organizational structures, and decision-making processes.
- Skilled in communication and advisory work, including presenting complex ideas clearly.

What We Offer:

A chance to shape meaningful policies, manage high-impact projects, and use your communication skills to build stronger connections between government, stakeholders, and the community.

Compensation:

Salary range: minimum Cg 5,298.00 to maximum Cg 9,011.00.
The salary is based on your relevant work experience and overall qualifications.
